

Ghost on Main Street

Written by: Chuck and Sandi Millar

Key D

INTRO - Banjo - Mandolin - G F C G D

Verse I

D G D
In an old victorian house down on Main Street
Am
ladies with busting bosoms were tonights unholy treat
D G
3am on a long night playing a poker game
D A D
a chill came in over the room outside it's pouring rain

Chorus

G
The cards are on the table set to play another round
D Am D one more man comes walking in and he'll sit right down
G
still no one makes a sound
F C G D
for the Main Street ghost will come around

CHORUS BREAK - Guitar - G - D Am D / G - F C G D

Verse II

D G D
All my chips in early deuces wins the pot
Am
that play was a little risky now here's your whiskey shot
D G D
before the hand was over we thought we heard a knock Am D
was it the ghost on Main Street or the ticking of the clock

Chorus

G
The cards are on the table set to play another round
D Am D
one more man comes walking in and he'll sit right down

G
still no one makes a sound
F C G D
for the Main Street ghost will come around

VERSE BREAK - Mandolin - D G D - D Am - D G D - D A D
CHORUS BREAK - Guitar - G - D Am D - G - F C G D

Bridge

Bb6 C Dsus2
6 are at the table but there's a seventh one Bb6 C A
the smell of cigar lingers till the morning sun G there's no flame in sight
F C G Dsus2
For the Main Street Ghost is with us tonight

Chorus

G
The cards are on the table set to play another round
D Am D
one more man comes walking in and he'll sit right down
G
still no one makes a sound
F C G D
for the Main Street ghost has come around G
still no one making a sound
F C G D
for the Main Street ghost has come around

OUTRO - BANJO GUITAR MANDOLIN - F C G D - Guitar Solo

©Chuck and Sandi Millar. All Rights Reserved.